

How USATestprep is Driving Results in South Carolina

Trusted by more than 500 schools in South Carolina

USATestprep is more than just test prep. Created by teachers, for teachers, we are a student- and teacher-friendly resource trusted by more than 500 South Carolina schools. A low-cost subscription gives you the ability to create unlimited practice sessions, quizzes, and assessments aligned to your state's standards.

You also receive immediate reporting that gives you everything you need to understand how your students are progressing throughout the year, with opportunities for individualized remediation and data analysis. At USATestprep, we give your students the tools they need to learn, master, and succeed.

We surveyed more than 130 educators across 65 districts in South Carolina to understand how they are using -- and finding success with -- USATestprep.

South Carolina Educator Survey Results

When asked about their students' engagement, 99% of all teachers surveyed agreed that USATestprep increased engagement with their students.

On top of improving engagement with students, the majority of our teachers also cited a boost in academic confidence as another benefit that students received with USATestprep.

Has USATestprep increased your students' academic confidence level?

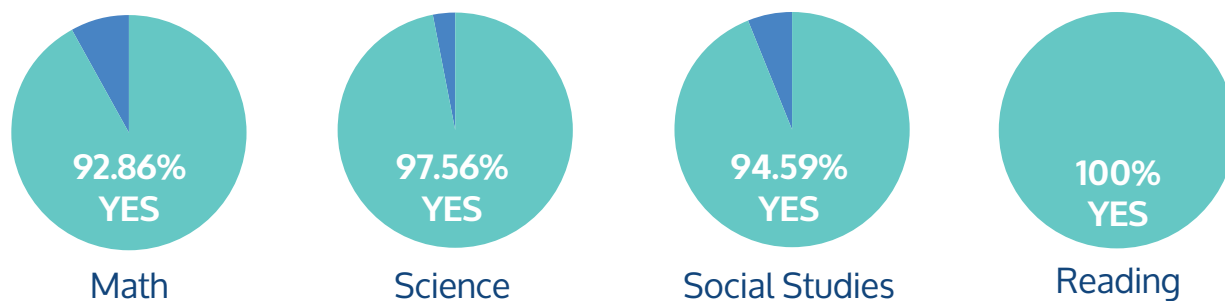

More than individual academic confidence, USATestprep teachers saw measurable improvement in achievement and standards mastery.

Has USATestprep improved your students' achievement and standards mastery?

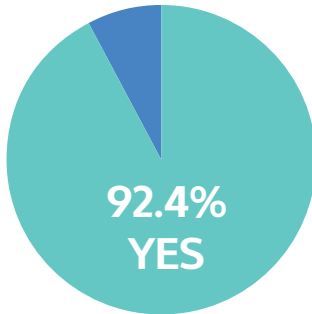

In addition to improving achievement with students, the majority of our teachers also saw measurable improvement in the use of academic language among students.

Has USATestprep fostered the use of academic language among your students?

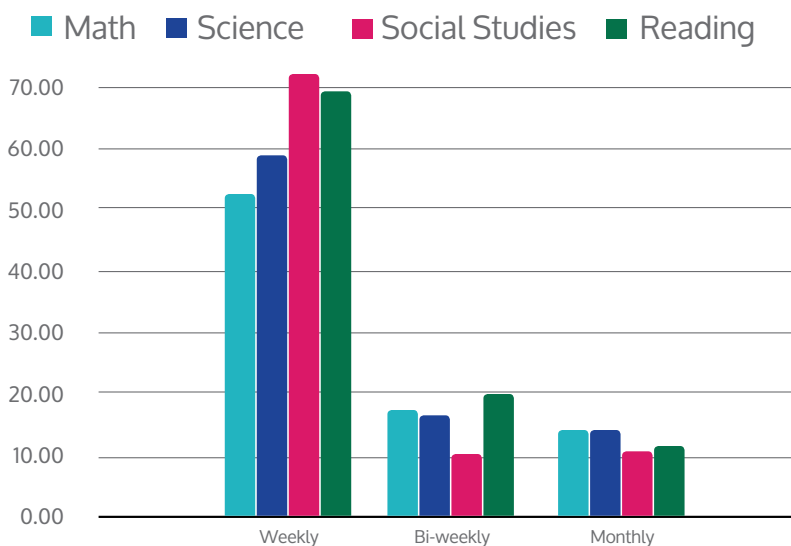

South Carolina Educator Survey Results

Was it easy to individualize student learning using USATestprep?

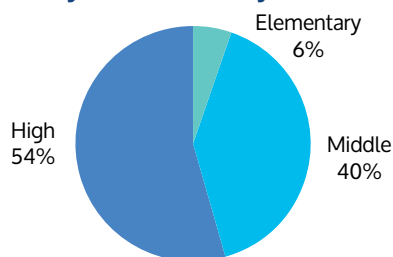

Implementing new technology in a classroom can be cumbersome and come with a steep learning curve. That is not the case with USATestprep. 92% of our teachers in South Carolina find our platform easy to use and assign individualized assignments to their students.

How often are you using USATestprep's instructional resources?

The majority of these teachers utilize USATestprep's resources on a weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly basis. These include, but are not limited to, projector mode questions, warm-up Bell Ringers, suggested practice/remediation assignments, printable activities, team-based projector games, and technology-enhanced performance tasks.

Surveyed Educators by Grade Level

Surveyed Educators by Subject Matter

